It was on a bright Easter Picnic that Tricky Sammy happened to meet with Planner Janet at the beach. Planner Janet is a really piece of beauty and she is being envied by her comrades for she is always busy attending to her male visitors and very cordial to all.

Planner Janet is so loved that almost all do Gentlemen that came to her are willing to have her as a future Partner, but as Tricky as Sammy is, he managed his way to gain Planner Janet's consent and they both agreed to continue their Courtship.

Not very long, a friend of Planner Janet called Josephine who is not happy with the deep sincerity and keen sense of love between Planner Janet and Trickish Sammy thought much of how she can gain the consent of Tricky Sammy and decided that she will make it a point of duty to contact Devilish Monroe to help her gain the consent of Tricky Sammy. Josephine went to Devilish Monroes residence at No 7 Highway avenue Prostitutes Quarters; HIGHLAND and discussed her planned business on how she can win Tricky Sammy's Love, and explained further that she is prepared to surrender all her belonging to Devilish Monroe if she can help her to accomplish her desire. Devilish Monroe agreed, and asked Josephine to give her the correct address of Tricky Sammy, which Josephine described as No 30 Wisdom Lane, Interlectual Quarters, NO FOOL having got the address. Devilish Monroe promised that she will immediately step into the matter to help her friend who is in the Love Muddle.

The next day, Devilish Monroe started her Journey to NOFOOL to look for Trickish Sammy she got there towards noon, but it was a troublesome attempt for her to locate the notorious Trickish Sammy however she succeeded in getting him at last. Having seen Sammy to be prettier than expected, she was so excited that she could not know the way and manner to approach Sammy who is handsome and Tricky. Sammy having got the idea that Monroe is much willing to propose love to him than to disuss any matter, hesitatingly left his room and bade Devilish Monroe goodbye for is expecting Planner on a visit that evening and for him to allow Devilish Monroe to accomplish her plan will mean an untold trouble which he could not lonely bear.

After a lot of persuasion Devilish Monroe aged to leave just to return the next day but being in doubt of what may happen the next day she asked Sammy to glve her a word of promise, Sammy reluctantly gave her an assurance to avoid her being met there by Janet and Devilish Monroe left Sammy's house with the believe that she will have her way the next day.

Having waited a little for the morning to go by, she started for Sammy's house towards noon. unfortunately for her she met Sammy's absence and that means a lot of waiting for Sammy's arrival. Though Sammy arrived in time but in company of a friend who escorted him home to collect something, being a vicitin of this unpredictable happening she dicided to be in possession of Sammy's Room Key which Sammy refused to give to an untrustworthy character which has just been known to him.

He discussed with his friend who promised to release him in half an hour's time to fulfil his appointment with Monroe, but Monroe should keep waiting at the door:

Having eyed Sammy on his way back home lonely, Monroe thought of nothing else than to welcome him with a Kiss having forgotten that she was on an errand. As human endurance is to a certain limit, Sammy has no alternative than to Welcome the Kiss, which to Monroe means a seal of love. Not so long, Sammy opened the door of his room and Monroe who has in her mind felt in love with Sammy taught of nothing else than to have a Siesta in company of Sammy to this Sammy refused and confirmed to her that he had already fell in love with Planner Janet which no force or plan on earth can alter.

Monroe tried in vain to perceive Sammy. After spending some extra hours in Sammys residence at last Monroe went home a disappointed JILTED LOVER who wanted to propose love than run an errand. Josephine who thought that Monroe was actually doing a job for her went to Monroe's house to enquire about the success of their plan, but instead for Monroes to confess that the journey was not fruitful, she wanted Josephine to have the experience she had got from Sammys wisdom. Monroe began to give Josephine the opposite side of the experience by telling Monroe that Sammy is a very Cheerful youngman who is willing to welcome any body to his house than to send somebody to him for she had noted that to be Sammy's attitude to the extent that Sammy's Smile to her (Monroe) at her first approach read much of love than greeting. as such she will not like Josephine offended. She knew she was on an errand to this she decided that it is better for Josephine to do the approach herself and to this Josephine agreed and promised to visit Sammy's residence the next day.

Hardly could Josephine had a rest throughout the night thinking on how she could get to Sammy's house without being seen by her friend Janet however Josephine succeeded in getting to Sammy's house without being seen by Janet.

On getting to Sammy's residence Josephine made an advance to which Sammy retreated, she was immediately disgusted and decided to go back to her house as a disappointed JILTED LOVER.
